Ashley Potts

Inside Sales Equine Specialist
Las Vegas, Nevada

Hello,

My name is Ashley Potts and I am your Midwest Inside Sales Equine Specialist for the Las Vegas, Nevada branch. I greatly look forward to meeting each and every one of you!

I grew up around performance horses and currently own a Paint horse named Waldo. I have an extensive background on the racetrack as a professional trainer for 10 years.

Starting as a kid in 4-H, I've had the opportunity to work with horses at many levels including grooming, training, and running thoroughbreds, collaborating with veterinarians on a daily basis, and competing on my own horses. I possess a unique perspective on the industry, and I understand what it takes to balance every aspect to be successful.

I am thrilled to be a part of Midwest Veterinary Supply and the equine team and look forward to finding ways to help you with your unique and individual needs.

Sincerely,

Ashley Potts
