

Never send a patient home with their IV catheter in place again!

Wrap the leg with red cohesive wrap (according to instructions) while the patient is in the hospital to indicate the catheter is in place. A small strip can be used above or below if visibility of the white tape is desired to monitor bleeding.

Apply green cohesive wrap when the catheter is removed to indicate the pet is ready to go home.

mVet Wraps:

