Kim Nelson

Equipment Sales Representative

My name is Kim Nelson, and I am extremely proud to be your trusted, knowledgeable resource as your dedicated Equipment Sales Representative.

I was born and raised in Wisconsin, where I currently live. I have had a passion for animals my whole life. I graduated from MATC of WI with an Associate Degree in Animal Science. With a licensed Veterinary Technician degree, I worked in a small animal practice for 22 years. I loved every minute of it! I joined Midwest Veterinary Supply in 2016 as an Equipment Sales Representative. Through my years of experience, I have gained knowledge on a multitude of useful equipment. I look forward to helping supply your business with the equipment necessary to service your patients better.

When I am not working, I love to spend time with my family and friends, particularly my granddaughter. While I am supporting veterinary teams by day, I am being supervised by my own furry family at night. Dolly my Frenchie, "CEO chief entitlement officer", and my two cats Phoebe and Leo, "Directors of energy conservation."

I look forward to building a relationship with you and being an excellent resource for all your equipment needs!

Sincerely,

Kim Nelson
